Officers: All Present

Reading of last months minutes: - Debbie

Treasury - $1,071.18

Bruce & Debbie discussed the issue regarding Town Line Road. The town of Smithtown has agreed to authorize the County to utilize real property, CR4, Commack Road and CR 13, Crooked Hill Road for the purpose to create a motor-carrier check site. Debbie and Bob Semprini went to the hearing at the Leg. Offices on Thursday, Jan. 19th. Bruce and Bob are trying to get a meeting with Senator Flanagan to discuss the change of traffic laws on Town Line Road.

Kings Park Association would like to have representatives from our group to discuss zoning changes. Adele volunteered. More information to follow.

Janette discussed Senator Flanagan's community meeting. She explained that the 2% tax cap varies. Certain towns have already voted to break the cap. Inspector Rhodes spoke about the recent burglaries. Three people have been arrested. One known person is still at large.

Increasing Membership – Maureen and Julie have been working to gather address of local business. Letters will be sent explaining the CCA.

Community Garden – Deb explained that Bruce has been in touch with Charles Barrett – Director of Smithtown Parks. (See attached letters)

Publicity – Notices were put in businesses and faxed to the local library. Bruce asked Rachel to get an estimate on a sign by Friendlies. Debbie gave Rachel the name of Dolce Signs.

Janette spoke about finances and fundraising. She felt that 1,000 is not adequate. We need to raise funds. Debbie spoke of the possibility of a pancake breakfast at Applebees. Janette, Pat & Della will be on a committee to see about fundraising.

Marion Carll – The Equestrian Group and a school for handicap students may be starting negotiations with the school district.

Steve Bellone received a copy of our petition.

Vito suggested that members of the Community Association should attend Huntington Town Board meeting.

Debbie Discussed the Community Association reaching out to help needy families in our community. Pat Fazio mentioned looking into “Angels Without Faces”.

Della motioned to adjourned

Adele seconded – meeting adjourned 8:45.
